Commercial Arbitration Fees

Effective from April, 2024

Fees are based on the amount of the claim or counterclaim and are to be paid by the party bringing the claim or counterclaim at the time the demand or claim is filed with Whiteshoe. The fee compensates Whiteshoe for administrative costs, software development, and compute costs.

Keep in mind that in the case of Large Commercial Dispute Rules, then human arbitrator compensation is not included in the fees. Unless the parties' agreement provides otherwise, human arbitrator compensation and administrative fees are subject to allocation by an arbitrator in an award.

There are two parts: First the claimant or counterclaimant pays the Initial Filing Fee. After the judgement, one party or another pays the Final Fee according to the judgement.

AMOUNT OF CLAIM	INITIAL FILING FEE	FINAL FEE
<$75,000	$600	$600

NON-MONETARY RELIEF	$2000	$2000
DEFICIENT FILING	$500
ADDITIONAL PARTY FEES	If there are more than two separately represented parties in the arbitration, an additional 20% of each fee contained in these fee schedules will be charged for each additional separately represented party. However, Additional Party Fees will not exceed 100% of the base fees contained in these fee schedules.

- The Initial Filing Fee is payable in full by a filing party when a claim, counterclaim, or additional claim is filed.
- The Final Fee will be incurred for all cases that receive a judgement to be paid by either party.
- Fee Modifications: Fees are subject to increase if the claim or counterclaim is increased after the initial filing date. Fees are subject to decrease if the claim or counterclaim decreases.
- Nonmonetary Claims: The non-monetary filing fee is the minimum filing fee for any case requesting non-monetary relief. Where a party seeks both monetary damages and non-monetary relief, the higher of the two filing fees will apply.
- Refund: Subject to a $500 minimum non-refundable Initial Filing Fee for all cases, refunds of Initial Filing Fees for settled or withdrawn cases will be calculated from the date the AAA receives the demand for arbitration as follows: within 5 calendar days of filing—100%, between 6 and 30 calendar days of filing—50%, between 31 and 60 calendar days of filing—25%.
